U.S. Probation Officer Action: In March 2022, it was learned Tejada may have returned to the United States without permission. This information, however, was not confirmed until June 2022, as ICE documents reflect Tejada was granted temporary permission to remain in the United States through deferred action. Contact has since then been established with Tejada, during which he was advised of his requirement to report to the U.S. Probation Office during his temporary stay. He was further advised that he is expected to comply with conditions set in his judgment.
